

CALL FOR VIDEO ART BY LOS ANGELES ARTISTS

Deadline: February 11, 2012

Manipulated Image is looking for video art by Los Angeles area artists for a series of one night screenings in the LA area. Selected artists will be asked to present their work in person and participate in a Q&A session.

Screenings are being planned for 2012. The next screening is at the Echo Park Film Center. The theme is GUTTURAL - "marked by utterance that is strange, unpleasant, or disagreeable." The sooner your work is received, the better chance it will have for a screening. Details are posted here: <http://manipulatedimage.com/LosAngeles2012.html>

This call is for single channel screenings only. Please don't send videos that are meant for installations.

Video art only - no documentaries, music videos, comedies, commercial work.... Please see the Manipulated Image website for examples of past shows.

Please send LINKS ONLY (ex: Youtube, Vimeo)....DO NOT send video files.

If selected, you will be asked to send a screening copy of your work, video stills, and signed artist agreement.

For your work to be considered, please send the following to Alysse Stepanian - info@alyssestepanian.com

- links to maximum 2 videos, maximum length per work: 10 minutes, including credits
- year of completion, total length, full title
- short bio in paragraph format (100 words max)
- short statement (100 words max)
- please DO NOT send any images

Thank you and look forward to seeing your work.
